ProQuest + Clarivate

A powerful combination that brings real benefits to libraries and users

Largest collection of expertly curated content -- with technologies for management, discovery and sharing

Comprehensive, connected, seamless experiences for users

Combining strengths means innovations that increase library and university impact

What's Next

Closing expected in third quarter

- Operating as separate and independent companies until closing
- No changes – it's business as usual
- Committed to serving customers as strongly as ever
- Read our press release for details

What is Learning Tools Interoperability?

- Learning Tools Interoperability (LTI) is a single standard by which EdTech providers can seamlessly link items of content with the major Learning Management Systems. The LTI “standard” is set by IMS Global—a non-profit collaborative advancing EdTech interoperability, innovation, and learning impact.
- LTI allows access to latest technology standards for deep linking technology.

What are the benefits of using LTI?

- Seamless Authentication
- One place for course information
- Deep linking into ProQuest databases

How to set up ProQuest as an External Tool within Canvas using LTI 1.3 Deep Linking Technology - ProQuest Support Center

What does this mean for faculty & students?

- Easy way to “hand” students assigned articles, passages, videos
- Integrate the materials directly into course modules or assignments
- No need to fetch, download, and upload materials from another place
- Students click on the links and they open in Canvas or Moodle without additional authentication
- Students can access this anywhere they can access Canvas or Moodle

Publication Page Optimization

- Latest issue contents are now shown directly on the publication page, with an enhanced issue picker.
- Including Video and Video Series
- This replaces the previous 'Browse specific issues', removing the multiple clicks required before user could view any content from the publication.
- A 'Copy URL' button is also provided to take away doubt about whether these page URLs are durable and can be bookmarked

The screenshot displays the 'African American Review' page on the Johns Hopkins University Press website. The page is divided into several sections:

- Header: Includes the journal title 'African American Review', publisher 'Saint Louis: Johns Hopkins University Press', and a 'Peer reviewed' status. It also features a 'Copy URL' button and social media links for 'Create alert' and 'RSS feed'.
- Issue Picker: A section titled 'Choose an issue to view' with dropdown menus for '2017', 'December', and 'Winter 2017; Vol. 50 (4)', followed by a 'View issue' button.
- Issue Contents: A list of articles from the selected issue, including 'All Our Names' by Grant, Nathan L., 'Move!, and: Sounding, and: Masked Angel Costume' by Amiri Baraka, and 'Homebound: Homeground, and: A Coltrane Poem: 9 23 98, and: Meditation for Inese, and: An Umbrella of Maple Leaves' by Harper, Michael S.
- Browse specific issues: A section on the left side of the page showing a list of years (2020-2020, 2011-2019, 2000-2009, 1990-1999, 1989-1989) with a blue arrow pointing to the '2011-2019' link.

The image is a screenshot of the ProQuest.com website. At the top, the browser's address bar shows 'proquest.com' circled in red. A red arrow points from this circle to a text box that reads: 'With its easy-to-remember URL, librarians can tell their students and faculty to simply "Go to ProQuest" or "go to ProQuest.com" to access the library's ProQuest content'. Another red arrow points from the top-left menu icon (three horizontal lines) to a text box that reads: 'Information about ProQuest and our products is available via the top left menu'. This arrow points to a dark teal sidebar menu that is open, showing options like 'About ProQuest', 'Support Center', and 'All Products'. The main content area features a large background image of a city skyline at night. Below the header, there are navigation buttons for 'All', 'Scholarly Journals', 'Books', 'Videos & Audio', 'Newspapers', and 'More'. A search bar with the placeholder text 'Enter search terms...' and a magnifying glass icon is positioned below these buttons. At the bottom of the page, there are three white boxes with icons and text: 'Visit our company website' (with a person icon), 'Looking for other products?' (with a magnifying glass icon), and 'Find support' (with a speech bubble icon).

Your Databases... (search.proquest.com)

The screenshot shows the ProQuest 'Select Databases' interface. A red circle highlights the 'Databases (185)' link in the top navigation bar. A red arrow points to the 'Brief view' tab. A red bracket on the left side of the database list indicates that all items are selected. The list includes various databases such as Alt-PressWatch, American Periodicals, and The Annual Register, each with a checkbox and a document icon. A 'Use selected databases' button is located in the top right corner.

The results...

The screenshot shows the ProQuest search interface. At the top, the search bar contains the term 'bungalow'. Below the search bar, two callouts highlight the number of results: a red-bordered box on the left shows '2,698,092 results', and a black-bordered box on the right shows '2,752,959 results'. The main results area displays a list of documents, each with a document icon, a title, and a snippet. The first three results are identical, showing a 'Running Maintenance Contract' document. The fourth result is partially visible. On the right side, there are two sections: 'Books that match your search' and 'Videos that match your search'. The 'Books' section shows two book covers, and the 'Videos' section shows a video thumbnail of a bungalow house.
