

Local History: Researching Your Community in GALILEO

Georgia History Resources

Find these and more in the Georgia History and Culture section of GALILEO:

<http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?path=/subjects/georgia-history-culture/articles-databases/&view=library>

- New Georgia Encyclopedia <http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=ngen>
NGE is an authoritative source on people, places, events, history, and other topics about this state. See the Cities and Counties section to learn more about your area.
- Digital Library of Georgia <http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=dlg1>
DLG is a gateway to Georgia's history and culture. Choose Browse by County to see collections related to your area, or choose Browse by Media Type to find historical newspapers, school yearbooks, and more. Collections of note: Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps and Vanishing Georgia
- GeorgialInfo <http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=gnfo>
GeorgialInfo offers current and historical information on the state of Georgia. Check out the Counties and Cities sections to find all types of resources for your area. Search for Place Names to see a list of current and historical names for cities.

Genealogy Resources

Find these and more in the Genealogy section of GALILEO:

<http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?path=/subjects/genealogy/articles-databases/&view=library>

- HeritageQuest Online <http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=zuhq>
Available to public libraries. HQO offers census records, local and family histories, and more. For historical state maps, go to Search Census and then choose Browse to see a particular year and state. The View State Map link will appear when you choose the state. Search Books or Serial Set by place or name.
- Ancestry Library Edition <http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=zual>
Available to higher education and public libraries; only available inside the library. ALE offers a variety of records, images, and more. Go to Search > Card Catalog or to the "all databases" link at the bottom of the home page to filter collections by location.