

READ MORE

Georgia stories

www.georgiaencyclopedia.org

Celebrating 10 years online!

NEW GEORGIA
Encyclopedia

James Oglethorpe was the founder of Georgia.

A visionary, social reformer, and military leader, he dreamed of establishing a classless agrarian society, in which there would be restrictions on how much land could be owned, as well as a prohibition on slavery.

The NGE is a program of the Georgia Humanities Council, in partnership with the University of Georgia Press, University System of Georgia/GALILEO, and the Office of the Governor

Image courtesy of Oglethorpe University